Senior Spotlight: Wyatt Jack

By Chase Talbert

Wyatt Lane Jack was born on July 26, 1999, he is the son of Scott Jack and Rita Van Roekel. Wyatt has two older siblings, they are Lex and Shauna Jack.

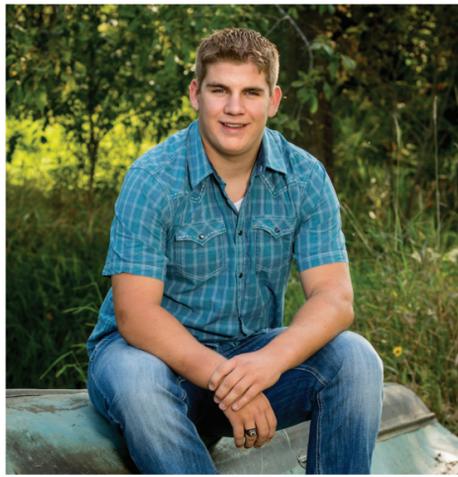

Wyatt's plans for the future are to attend DMACC and then later transfer to Iowa state to further his education.

Wyatt's favorite memory from high school is when he would go do dumb stuff with his friends while riding in their pickup trucks. His greatest regret, however, was when he would, "let the small stuff, like drama, influence a good time." During his time at MHS Wyatt played football and participated in track and field.

The faculty member that Wyatt would like to thank for their guidance during high school is Mr. Dengler, because, "he is a great all around teacher."

His most ridiculous method of receiving an injury came from when him and Beefy were riding together on his moped and they wrecked. Finally, Wyatt would bring Vin Diesel with him on a deserted island because, "we are practically the same person."

Senior Spotlight: Kian McKeag

By Brayden Stockman

Kian McKeag, son of Jacki and Bill Bolen and brother of Cass McKeag and Shay Moore, is one of the graduating Class of 2018. After high school, he plans to join the United States Navy. His birthday is May 20, 2000.

Kian's favorite memory of his high school career was, as he states, "Spending every day with my man, Chase Talbert." His biggest regret was not getting a job 'with his Depot brothers' sooner.

Kian's most embarrassing injury was one time when Wyatt told him a really funny joke and he fell off of his dinosaur.

If he were stranded on a desert island, he would take Kylee Taylor, because she is the coolest person that he knows.

He would most like to thank Jared Little, specifically stating, "Thanks a ton, Rodney."

Senior Spotlight: Alex Ely

By Carrie Jennings

Alex Ely is the daughter of Chris and Kathy Ely and the younger sister of Cassidy Ely. Her birthday is March 30th, 2000.

After graduating from Montezuma High School, she plans to attend DMACC in Ankeny, Iowa to pursue a degree in Criminal Justice. She also wants to get a realtor license.

During her high school career, she has participated in basketball, volleyball, track, cross country, and Speech and Drama. Her favorite memory from high school was winning the Lip Sync this school year with some of her fellow seniors.

Her biggest regret, on the other hand, is not doing cross country all four years of high school. She would like to thank Carrie Jennings for being such a great and handsome friend.

Senior Spotlight: Breck Goodman

By Carrie Jennings

Breck Goodman is the daughter of Mike and Marchelle Goodman and sister of Luke Goodman. Her birthday is October 10th, 1999.

Upon graduating, she plans on attending the University of Iowa to pursue a degree in English and Creative Writing along with Spanish. She also plans to begin a career in rowing.

Her favorite memories from high school were winning Critic's Choice for Choral Reading her sophomore year and going to the baseball state tournament.

Her biggest regret was not consistently drawing her eyebrows on until halfway through her sophomore year. "I've gotten pretty good at it," she states.

Her most ridiculous injury was when she was in Spain and tried to dunk a basketball through an eight foot hoop to impress some guys. She ended up kneeling herself in the head and giving herself a concussion.

She would personally like to thank Diana the custodian because "she has always been so sweet to me, and I know she genuinely cares for us students."

Senior Spotlight: Quincy Conger

By Chase Talbert

Quincy Conger was born on July 5, 2000 to Kierston Till and Sam Conger, she has two younger siblings, they are Shelby Conger and Linkyn Bru. After high school, Quincy plans to attend Kirkwood Community College for Financial Services.

Her favorite memory from high school was when she won the lip sync during homecoming week. Her greatest regret from high school was that she played volleyball for all four years. She would thank Mr. Kevin Gartman because, "he was a great cross country coach and very good teacher," she also learned many life lessons from him as well.

The most ridiculous way that Quincy has injured herself was when she attempting to do a cartwheel. The person she would choose to have with her on a deserted island is her mother, and since her dog isn't technically a person she wants to bring it with them.

Senior Spotlight: Dustin Stoner

By Chase Talbert

Dustin Stoner was born on April 23, 1998 to Mike Stoner and Stephanie Thomas, he has three older siblings, Erica Stoner, Jesika Stoner, and Zoe stoner.

Dustin plans to go to William Penn College in order to play football for them. His greatest memory also involves football, it was when the Braves became conference champions in football. His greatest regret was when he decided to ride a skateboard into the side of a parked car.

He would like to thank Tyler Baethke for always being a supportive coach and helping him in every sport he did in high school. Even more than riding a skateboard into a car, his most ridiculous injury was during his freshman year of wrestling when he hit his head on a wall mid-match. His choice for a companion on a stranded island would be Chuck Norris, "because he can do anything."
