The U.S. Department of Education's Elementary & Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund (also known as ESSER III) requires school districts to provide opportunities for stakeholder engagement and public input from stakeholders, including students, families, school administrators (including special education administrators), teachers, school staff, and their unions. Any stakeholder wishing to share public input regarding the district's ongoing plan for use of Federal ESSER III funds is encouraged to share their input by participating in the public forum or by contacting the superintendent.
