

Paper Topics

Name: _____

Directions: For this course, you will need to write 2 papers; one is due February 18th and April 29th.

However, you can turn both in prior to their due dates if you would like. There are four possible topics that a student can write about:

- Attitudes

- Write Summary
- Based on the information provided, explain what conditions could cause an Amish person to change their attitude in regards to living the Amish lifestyle and, conversely, what conditions would cause them to maintain their Amish lifestyle (Hint: Use the 3 factors in the strength of the attitude section).

- Stereotypes

- Write Summary
- This article describes how we speak to children can influence the development of gender stereotypes. How can the way we speak to children eventually lead to hostile and benevolent sexism? What are 2 other ways, besides what is noted in the article, that adults can help change the development of gender stereotypes?

- Groupthink

- Write Summary
- In the article, it discusses how a peaceful protest evolved into violence. Using the properties of groupthink, explain how this peaceful protest escalated into violence, noting 2 ways these protestors could have prevented the violence that occurred (Hint: Use the 3 characteristics that contribute to the development of groupthink)

- Loneliness

- Write Summary

- The article discusses the hierarchy of girl world, intimating the complications of interpersonal relationships during female adolescence. How can intimate and relational loneliness occur in adolescent female relationships, and what are 2 ways they can cope with loneliness.

In each paper, you will need to SUMMARIZE the article read, and then answer the questions presented by Ms. Taylor. Any questions, ask.

Please get your journal article on your selected topic from Ms. Taylor when you are ready.
